Athrophores has done me more good than anything I have ever taken. I was a great sufferer from rheumatism, but since taking seven bottles of the remedy, I think that I am nearly or quite cured. — G. D. Gilson, Dunstable, Mass.

And every, my dear:
The mother had talked over about the dress the evening before when Nellie came home and threw her books down saying, "There I want go to school another day, that I know!" Mother had found out by degrees that Mary Nelson, one of the richest girls in school had made herself and her mates merry over the patches which
